

KUSNoKI Project, Kyoto University

Privacy Policy

Introduction

The Kyoto University Graduate School of Medicine, Center for Medical Education and Internationalization (referred to as “the Center”) respects the privacy of users of its website and related services (referred to as “the Site”) of the KUSNoKI Project, Kyoto University organized by the Center. This policy explains how the Center handles the collection of personal information through the Site.

Collection of Information

The Site may automatically collect the following information when users browse or use the Site: IP address, browser type, language settings, access date and time, and personal information provided by users through inquiry and application forms.

Use of Information

The Center uses the collected information for the following purposes:

- Providing and managing services
- Contact and Communication with users
- Improvement of the Site and users’ convenience
- Compliance with legal requirements
- Sharing and disclosure of information
- Enhancement of the project activities
- Research on healthcare professionals

The Center does not provide users’ personal information to third parties, except in the following cases:

- When the user consents
- When there is a legal obligation
- When it is necessary to protect the safety of the user and other individuals

Responsibility for Information

The Center strictly complies with laws and regulations related to personal information and takes all necessary measures to protect the important personal information of registered individuals. However, the Center cannot be held responsible for any misuse of information due to the user’s negligence or third-party actions, despite appropriate information management.

Links to External Websites

The Site contains links to other websites. The Center is not responsible for the privacy and security practices of these linked websites. It is recommended to review the privacy policies of linked websites.

Changes to Privacy Policy

The Center may change this policy. Any changes will be posted on the Site. It is recommended to check the latest privacy policy.

Contact Information

For inquiries regarding the privacy policy, please contact the Center from the “Contact Us” page.